Lost (Belle Ridge, Texas Book 1)
by Andrea Rousse

SYNOPSIS

They say a trouble shared is a trouble halved, but what happens to a person who is unable to share, swimming in lies, on the run from their past, and lost in plain sight? Mallory Evans knows the face of evil all too well. She's willing to pay any price to keep the people she loves safe. On the run for ten years since that fateful night everything changed? Mallory sought refuge in the small Texas town of Belle Ridge, keeping her head down and living a life of lies. But when a handsome stranger arrives in town, she questions if mere survival is worth all that she's paid. Lucas Witter knows who he is and where he comes from. Confident in his life and purpose, he arrives in Belle Ridge with a singular focus. It doesn't take long after he first lays eyes on Mallory to begin second-guessing himself. She has shaken him to his core and he wonders if he will be able to walk away from her when the time comes. When ghosts reappear, will he be her saving grace or will she be his fatal downfall?
